This letter is written by me Cheryl Smulian. The wife of Andrew Michael Smulian.

On meetings Mr. Bout Andrew discussed everything with me about the business and assured me that you will take care of my financial situation. My recent talk with Andrew's lawyers confirm that he is not well and requests for me and the children to come to New York. I can give you Mr Bout my assurance that Andrew will not let you down or even breath a word about you if you only if you take care of me and my kids financial state completely as we written above. I have the power to visit Andrew with our children and talk personally with him this is confirmed by his lawyer and only me and the children. The safety and security of our children and me are of the most important to Andrew. I will make sure Andrew protects you and does as you instruct him to do via me. Provided you meet our financial situation. This must be done before I leave the country. Or I will never let you down. Trust me!
